IT'S TIME TO HEAL

SERENITY IN FACADE OF HOPE

RIEN IS A BRAND THAT HOLDS A VALUE OF SOPHISTICATION AND CULTURAL EMBODIMENT. IT IS A CONTEMPORARY BATIK WHERE IT IS RARE TO BE HEARD OR SEEN IN THE FASHION INDUSTRY. THE INSPIRATION CAME FROM MY CULTURAL BACKGROUNDS WHERE BATIK IS ALWAYS SYMBOLIZED AS OUR PRIDE AND STRENGTH.

ALTHOUGH, IT MAY DIFFER TO THE YOUNGER GENERATIONS WHERE THEY THOUGHT TRADITIONAL HOLDS NO VALUE. THIS IS WHERE MY VISION TOOK CHARGE TO ELEVATE THE BATIK TO BE TRENDY AND CONTEMPORARY IN A SENSE THAT IT COULD BE WORN AS CASUAL WEAR. WITHIN THIS, I WOULD LIKE TO CHALLENGE THE TRADITIONAL FORM OF BATIK INTO A NEW WAVE THAT WOULD BREAK THE NORMALITY OF WHAT PEOPLE WOULD THINK AND SEE ABOUT BATIK. AS YOU CAN SEE, THE GOAL IS TO INTRODUCE THE BATIK CULTURE TO THE WORLD ITSELF.

SEASON ONE IS CALLED 'SERENITY IN FAÇADE OF HOPE' WHICH RESEMBLES THE IMAGE OF LIFE. I TEND TO PLAY WITH THE SHAPES, TEXTURES, COLOURS AND EVEN THE CUTTING OF THE CLOTHES TO EMOTE THE SERENITY THAT I HOPE TO HEAL WITHIN THE PEOPLE WHO ARE HURTING IN LIFE. IT IS A THERAPEUTIC PROCESS IN A FORM OF ART WHERE THE PATTERN ITSELF SYMBOLIZES MY OWN STRUGGLES IN THE WORLD. THE DESIGNS ARE DRAWN FROM SCRATCH WITH INFLUENCE FROM BITS OF ASIAN CULTURE AROUND ASIA WITH A TWIST OF WESTERNIZED ABSTRACT. IT IS CALLED RIEN'S 'KERRAWANG'.

A person is walking from left to right across the frame. They are wearing a short-sleeved shirt with a blue and white geometric pattern and light-colored shorts with a small, repeating pattern. The background is a solid, vibrant blue. The person's right arm is slightly bent, and their left leg is forward in a walking motion.

HEALING COLORS ARE THE COLORS THAT INFLUENCE MOOD, CALM THE NERVOUS SYSTEM AND MAKE THE ENVIRONMENTS LESS PROVOKING AND PEACE INDUCING. OVER THE CENTURIES, MANY CULTURES ACROSS THE WORLD HAVE EMPLOYED COLORS FOR THEIR HEALING POWERS.
